The Philadelphia Radical Convention PHILADELPHIA, September 2.—At a meeting of "Southern" delegates, held at the National Union Club House, last evening, Gov.
Fletcher, of Mo., acted as chairman, and Dr.
Hawkins, Tennessee, as secretary.

A committee was appointed to designate the speaker to make addresses in reply to the welcome speech of Charles Gibbons, Esq., on behalf of the Union men of the North. Gov.
Hamilton, of Texas, was chosen for that purpose.

Gov. Fletcher will probably act as temporary chairman of the convention, and ex-Attorney General Speed will, it is expected, be chosen permanent president.

Among the persons who have arrived here are Governors Fairchild, of Wisconsin, and Fletcher, of Missouri; John Minor Botts, of Virginia; Senators Wade, Chandler, Harris and Lane.

At the Union Methodist Church, this morning, Parson Brownlow delivered a characteristic address. He is laboring under a recent attack of palsy, and he said that nothing could have induced him to have attended the convention in his present physical condition but the deep, abiding interest he felt in the cause of his country, and the fierce and terrible conflict now going on between the executive and legislative departments of the federal government.

"The President shall succeed—shall conquer in his purposes—all the Southern Unionists and colored loyalists will have to leave and seek some other abode. So far," said the speaker, "as I am concerned, I fled from the South the last time, and sought the shelter of the mountain gorges of Tennessee for the last time, and I will never expire on a lamp post, under the shadow of the capital of Tennessee."

A special meeting of the city council has been called for tomorrow, to tender the hospi-talities of the city to the "Southern" delegates to the convention.

A meeting for prayer and conference was held to-night by a number of the delegates to the convention, in the rooms of the State Central Committee, on Chestnut street. Senator Harris, of New York presided, and opened the proceedings.

After prayer, by the Rev. Dr. Newton, of Louisiana, Senator Harris gave a general invitation to such as desired to address the meeting.

Mr. Eaton, of Memphis, was the first to speak, and denounced the clergy and church of the South as the soul of the rebellion.
Rev. Mr. Conroy, of New York, lately removed from the freedom's bureau in Louisiana on charges, earnestly prayed that the President should be prevented from doing mischief and taught to do right.

Senator Lane, of Indiana, also spoke. He said false prophets were crying "peace, peace," when there was no peace. Their brethren were being slaughtered in the South, day by day, and hour by hour. Conventions legally assembled were being dispersed, and the streets of Memphis were being made to run with the blood of the only loyal white left there. Even recently in the neighboring State of Maryland, men of God, while kneeling at the altar, were slaughtered by ruffian hands, led on by that same wild spirit, evoked by the institution of slavery.

He continued at some length in the same strain, and followed by Mr. Eaton, of St.
Louis, who followed in his heart of hearts that this was a religious struggle. Mr. Palmer, of Tennessee, denounced the President as a public disgrace.

A report from Fauquier county, Va., states that the feeling now existing between the whites and the freedmen is of a very encouraging character. No reports of abuse of the freedmen have been during the month.— The freedmen have observed in good faith the contract made by them with the whites; the latter, also, with a few exceptions, have done the same towards the blacks. It is not thought that the feeling against the freedmen is as bitter as it has been heretofore. The Assistant Superintendent states that he is free to say the moral and domestic affairs of the freedmen have been much improved since the promulgation and explanation to them of circulars No. 10 and 11, from headquarters Assistant Commissioner, in reference to marriages.— The freedmen are procuring their licenses, and are acquiring a better understanding of the subject.
Some interest has been manifested by the clergy of the county in the education of the children of the freedmen, and applications for books have been completed with through the New England Freedmen's Aid Society. Enough books have been received for the establishment of schools for the coming autumn.

The Palmyra (Mo.) Spectator, of Friday last, says:
The regular term of our Circuit Court, Judge Harrison on the bench, commenced its session on Monday last. The criminal docket is quite large, and differs widely from the dockets of former years. Fourteen ministers were indicted for preaching the gospel. Their cases, we learn, were laid over to the next February term. The docket runs somewhat after this fashion:
Rev. James S. Green, preaching the gospel; Rev. John Smith, selling whisky without license; Rev. W. M. Newland, preaching the gospel without a license; James Brown, selling whisky on Sunday; Rev. J. H. Luther, preaching the gospel; Jud. Dunley, keeping a bawdy house; Rev. Henry Louthan, preaching the gospel, and so on.

George H. Briggs, paying teller of the Nassau Bank, New York, was arrested on Friday last on a charge of embezzlement. After his arrest Briggs acknowledged his guilt, and said the money taken by him had been lost in gambling. A large deficit was found in his accounts.
Briggs is a married man, and thirty-five years of age. His guilt was brought to light through the detective police, who learned that Briggs was squandering large sums of money at the gambling saloons on Broadway.

A MODERN MIRACLE!
From old and young, from rich and poor, from high-born and lowly, comes the Universal Voice of Praise for HALL'S VEGETABLE
SCISSOR HAIR RENEVER.

It is a perfect and marvellous article. Cures badness. Makes hair grow. A better dressing than any "oil" or "pomatum" softens brash, dry and wiry hair into beautiful silken tresses.
But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR.

Use it a few times, and PRESTO, CHANGE!
The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter.

It will not take a long disagreeable trial to prove the truth of this matter. The first application will do good; you will see the natural color returning every day, and before you know it, the gray, dirty colored appearance of the hair will be giving place to lustrous, shining and beautiful locks.

Ask for Hall's Scissor Hair Renever; no other article is at all like it in effect. You will find it cheap to buy, pleasant to use, and sure to give good results.

There are many imitations. Be sure you procure the genuine, manufactured only by R. P. HALL & CO.,
Nashua, N. H., Proprietors.
For sale by all druggists.

A GREAT CHANCE FOR WOOD AND LUMBER DEALERS.—The undersigned are authorized to sell 1240 ACRES OF LAND, all in timber, in Fairfax county, 10 or 12 miles from Alexandria, on the line of the Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad, now in process of construction. It is heavily timbered, much of it being valuable ship-timber. The ties alone, of that could be furnished the railroad, would pay a large portion of the purchase money. There is a great variety of other valuable timber—besides, at the lowest estimate, 20,000 cords of wood, which can be transported by water to market.
The land after being cleared will be valuable for cultivation. This property can be bought at a price that will ensure a fortune to an enterprising purchaser. Mr. Alexander Innis, who is selling, will show the property to any one desirous of seeing it.
